

Break Records In Completing Phone Network

Emergency Service is Given Every City and Town in Appleton District Today

SOON REACH FOND DU LAC

One-mile Gap is All That Stood in Way of Michigan-to-Chicago Circuit

Breaking all records for quick erection of long distance telephone lines, relief construction crews of the Wisconsin Telephone company will have established communication with every city and village between the Appleton district, composed of 19 counties, by Friday night, according to J. T. Quinlan, district manager.

This does not mean that long distance service will be resumed to all points, but that at least one emergency wire is strung over each place so it can be reached by telephone from Appleton if necessary. Any calls that must be gotten through will be handled to the best of the company's ability, Mr. Quinlan said.

Completion of this network of communication wires over the entire northeastern part of the state is considered a remarkable feat. With men and materials lacking until last Friday, it means that service was restored for hundreds of miles within one week.

Every rural section was covered by crews of linemen and laborers as soon as they could be obtained, and with all working toward the one objective of restoring service achieved this result.

It is the belief of Mr. Quinlan that the loss to the Wisconsin Telephone company over the entire state as the result of the storm will reach $2,000,000, most of which was in the Appleton district, and particularly in the Fox River valley.

TEN LINES UP
Linemen were expected to connect 10 toll lines built from Fond du Lac with the Fond du Lac exchange Friday morning. Long distance service now may be had from Oshkosh through Appleton and Green Bay to northern Michigan over these lines.

Mr. Quinlan had not learned just what progress was made between Fond du Lac and Milwaukee, but on a visit to Fond du Lac Friday hoped to find it possible to make connections from the north that would give commercial service all the way to Chicago. Only one mile of territory without wires prevented a Green Bay-Fond du Lac connection.

Ten wires also have been built from Appleton to New London, affording service to Stevens Point, Rhinelander, Antigo and intermediate points in that section. Emergency lines are completed to Manitowish, Sheboygan and Two Rivers, and to Omro, Berlin and Plymouth.

Ripon, Red Granite, Princeton and Green Lake were the only towns that had neither commercial nor emergency service Friday, but such good progress was being made that some kind of service was assured before night.

WILL NOT LET GOVERNOR
APPEAR BEFORE JURORS

By United Press
Okmulgee, Okla.—Gov. J. B. A. Robertson of Oklahoma, arrived here Friday night to demand that he be permitted to testify before the district court grand jury investigating state bank failures in Okmulgee county. County attorney James Heppburn has declined to accept the governor's offer to appear before the jury and "tell everything on the grounds that he knows of no law which would permit a person under investigation to appear before the jury. Robertson said he wanted to testify after he learned an attempt was being made to indict him.

Election of officers of the American legion auxiliary to the Onay Johnston post took place at the luncheon meeting on Thursday. Mrs. J. H. Tippet is president, Mrs. Adell Houdeshult, vice president, Mrs. P. A. Morse, secretary, Mrs. B. B. Gonschauer, treasurer. The executive committee is Mrs. Phil Miller, Mrs. N. A. Gmeiner, and Mrs. A. B. Fischer. Mrs. W. R. Johnston is chaplain.

Final plans for the banquet for the American legion convention were made. The school committee reported that there are five service men in Riverview sanatorium.

Want Uniforms To Put Stop To Fashion Orgy

St. Louis.—Recommendations for a uniform dress for high school girls was adopted Thursday by the women's chamber of commerce representing seventy-two local organizations. Parents were arraigned for allowing their daughters to attend school in such "gorgeous scenery" and the chamber stated "no wonder boys are delinquent in scholarships" when the girls hold dress parades so attired.

ILLINOIS MINERS THREATEN BREAK WITH BIG UNION

President Farrington Plans to Hold Separate Parley With Operators

By United Press
Springfield, Ill.—Illinois coal miners leaders Friday threatened to bolt solid ranks of United Mine Workers and make separate peace with operators. F. H. Farrington, president of the Illinois miners, predicted Friday his organization would disregard strike plans and accept invitation of Illinois operators for parley, stating that Farrington's program is favored by other union officials of district No. 12, it will mean that miners of Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana will have to fight their own battles. President John L. Lewis of United Mine Workers has repeatedly refused to allow separate units of competitive field to treat with operators in their district. Technical Lewis must give his sanction to Farrington's plan, but, according to the insurgent leader, the plan will be rushed through despite any stand taken by Lewis. Lewis and Farrington have been enemies for years, fighting each other to the limit at every convention of miners.

MOVEMENT TO OUST PREMIER CHECKED

Conservatives Stand by Lloyd George During Fierce Political Attack

By United Press
London.—Lloyd George has weathered another political crisis. The "die hards" in the unionist ranks who would have forced the resignation of the premier were checked by the conservative party at a stormy session. Arthur Balfour is understood to have used his influence to aid Lloyd George.

A group of conservatives under Sir George Younger sought to bring about a return to party politics by attacking Lloyd George at the present moment when due to conditions in Ireland, postponement of the Genoa conference and other international difficulties he has not been over-ruled to resign under their attacks unless the conservative party gave him a vote of confidence.

Announcement at Oxford university by Austin Chamberlain, leader of the expected to declare the party's confidence in the premier. The prime minister has been successfully crossed extremely thin ice but bloodhounds of right are not silenced for long.

Dress Up City For Meeting Of War Veterans

Make Appleton a city of patriotic glory and warm welcome when 500 or 600 heroes of the World War invade its gates for the state American legion conference Saturday and Sunday.

This is the plan of Onay Johnston post to merchants and business men generally. Every building that has a flag pole should fly the stars and stripes for the next two days, local veterans say, and windows ought to have an abundance of red, white and blue. The plan is to decorate with appropriate signs of welcome.

In their rush to find places of entertainment and complete arrangements for convention sessions, committee members of the post have not found time to appeal to each business place in person but are confident that a published request for this decoration will mean that Appleton Saturday morning will be "all dressed up" for the visitors from every nook and corner of Wisconsin.

CLARIFIER OF 4-POWER PACT SURE TO PASS

Senate Wants Harding's Position in Pacific Matters Recorded for All Time

SURE WAY TO DODGE WAR

Acceptance of Treaty Reservation by Powers Makes U. S. Position Sure

By David Lawrence
(Copyright, 1922, by Post Pub. Co.)
Washington.—Senator Brandegee's reservation to the four-power treaty will be adopted. It contains President Harding's exact words in the address made the senate on submitting the pact. To vote down the reservation may be construed as an affirmation of the argument that the four-power treaty is an alliance and obligates America to go to war.

This is the situation as the debate on the four-power treaty begins. Ratification with the Brandegee reservation seems assured. Without it, there is danger of defeat for the treaty.

The views of most of the senators who advocate the Brandegee reservation have been given to this correspondent. To understand the reasons which actuate them, it is necessary to study the exact text of the treaty, as well as the reservation which reads as follows:

NO ARMES AGREEMENT
"The United States understands that under the statement in the preamble, or under the terms of this treaty, there is no commitment to armed force, no alliance, no obligation to join in defense."

First, the senators who favor it make it clear that they do not for a moment question Mr. Harding's interpretation of the treaty but they want his interpretation made a part of the ratifying resolution itself to the rest of the world and future generations will not misunderstand. At present the interpretation is merely an executive statement and the senate has not yet uttered its understanding of the treaty.

If the Brandegee reservation is adopted by the senate, it includes and exchanges with the other powers who signed the treaty and they do not protest that their understanding is different, then the other nations never could claim that the United States was under "any obligation to join in any defense." The reservation in relation to their insular possessions and insular dominions in the region of the Pacific ocean.

ACTS AS CLARIFIER
Senators who take this view point out that if the treaty without the reservation means what President Harding says it does, there can be no valid objection to letting the treaty go by means of a clarifying reservation. The preamble of the treaty declares that one of the purposes for which the treaty is made is the "maintenance of their rights in relation to their insular possessions in the Pacific ocean." Article two says that "if the said rights are threatened by the aggressive action of any other power, the contracting parties shall communicate with one another to arrive at an understanding as to the most efficient means to be taken, jointly or separately, to meet the exigencies of the particular situation."

Now it is the view of many senators that when "aggressive action" occurs the conference of powers does not by any means meet merely to decide whether they shall take any action. They communicate only "in order to arrive at an understanding as to the most efficient means to be taken."

On the words "most efficient means" the whole thing turns. There's the rub. The senators who feel deeply about this insular point out that a valid obligation is in that phrase for if the aggressive action is taken by a naval attack when an island in the Pacific belonging to the British or Japanese empires is encroached upon, then the "most efficient" is not the only effective measure. That is, it was found he had jointly to send a navy to repel the naval attack.

LAWRENCE GIVEN GRANT OF $10,000

General Board of Education Gives Money to Meet College Expenses

A grant of $10,000 has been made to Lawrence college by the General Board of Education of New York to help cover expenses while the campaign for additional endowment for the college is being conducted. The board of education offered Lawrence college a sum of $200,000 if it would raise $400,000 additional endowment in two years.

During that period, the board agreed to give $10,000 annually to the college to cover expenses. The two year period has expired, but Dr. Samuel Flint, president of the college, has secured an extension of the time for raising the money to three years and secured the additional $10,000. The campaign is slow because of the uncertain financial condition of the country.

JACOB SCHIFF ESTATE
VALUED AT $35,000,000

New York.—The schedules in the estate of Jacob H. Schiff, banker and philanthropist, who died on Sept. 25, 1920, prepared for submission to the state tax commission in the inheritance tax proceeding to begin shortly, fixed the value of the property to be taxed in New York state at $35,000,000. The list of Mr. Schiff's bond holdings shows that the largest item is $6,395,975 in United States Victory notes.

FLOOD CUTS OFF GAS SUPPLY FOR A WEEK

Dixon, Ill.—Waters from the flooded Rock river today invaded the Illinois Northern Utilities company's gas and electric plants, putting them out of commission. The city will be without gas for fuel or lighting purposes for a week.

The ice gorges—there are now two following the division of the long mass of ice early today—are still holding. Illinois Central bridge engineers and division superintendents, who have been watching the company's new $200,000 bridge, tonight maintained that the greatest danger to it was past.

WAR VETERANS FLOCK TO CITY

SOLDIER CAN GET
$50 CASH ON BONUS
IF PLAN SUITS U. S.

House Leaders Predict Early Passage of Measure Granting Certificates

By United Press
Washington.—House bonus leaders predicted Friday that a noncash bonus gratuity plan would go through congress with no trouble. The subcommittee engaged in redrafting legislation eliminating the cash bonus except for $50 and less, estimated that the bill will be ready in two weeks. Leaders see no reason for delay.

Since the insurance certificate proposal involves no cash, it is expected that the measure will be passed in the next three years. There will be no particular objection to it among the majority of representatives and senators. President Harding is agreeable to the proposal.

The plan will involve taxation of some kind or another. The measure will be spread in the measure for the future. Considerable detail work must be done. For instance, rates of interest on loans made the soldier upon the certificates must be fixed and provisions must be written as to redemption of the paper. Special care will be taken to shield the soldier from loan sharks and only reputable banking establishments will be permitted to engage in loaning on certificates and then only under well-defined conditions. Under the present plan the cash bonus which may be paid to men serving 110 days will be $30 because $60 given all men upon discharge is to be deducted.

WHIRLING SHAFT INJURES WORKMAN

Frank Fisher Seriously Hurt in Plant of Konz Box and Lumber Co.

Frank Fischer, Morrison, Ill., was critically injured at the plant of Konz Box and Lumber Co. Thursday afternoon by being wound around a shaft which he was trying to stop. He was removed to St. Elizabeth's hospital, where it was found he suffered the fracture of two ribs and was badly bruised and crushed. He has a chance for recovery.

The accident was caused when Fischer's sweater caught on the set screw of an idler on a shaft. He was turning on the power. He was drawn around the shaft before he could be released and it is feared he suffered internal injuries.

LANDIS TALKS SUNDAY A. M.

Former Jurist Changes Time of Meeting at Which He Will Address Public

Judge K. M. Landis will address the people of Appleton at the public meeting of the state conference of American Legion post commanders and adjutants at 10 o'clock Sunday morning in Lawrence Memorial chapel instead of Sunday afternoon as previously announced.

This change was announced in a telegram received by the arrangements committee of Onay Johnston post Friday morning. The judge said he must be back in Chicago Sunday night, but would be glad to give his public address in the morning. He will speak at the evening banquet Saturday as scheduled, however.

Delegates began to arrive Friday for the statewide conference, some from remote points. Several hundred are expected here in time for the opening session of the 2-day gathering at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at 6:30 in the evening in the Lawrence Memorial chapel.

The state executive committee, consisting of state officers and one committeeman from each congressional district, held a meeting at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon. A dinner is to be held at 6:30 in the evening in the German house with Edward J. Barrett, state commander presiding. Members of the executive committee of Onay Johnston post also will attend the dinner.

Edgar P. Schommer, chairman of the entertainment committee, announced Friday that he had obtained enough rooms to accommodate all the former service men expected. He received a liberal response to his request for the rental of rooms in private homes and voices his appreciation of this showing of hospitality.

BUSY PROGRAM

Saturday will be a busy day for the delegates. Addresses and conferences follow one another in quick succession all through the morning, afternoon and evening. Every form of legion activity will be touched upon and the situation with respect to disabled and unemployed veterans of the World War will be discussed quite thoroughly. A routine of talks and conferences will be topped by the banquet at 6:30 in the evening in the German house with Edward J. Barrett, state commander presiding. Members of the executive committee of Onay Johnston post also will attend the dinner.

BROKERS FLEE FROM DISTRICT ATTORNEY

Detectives Find Only Empty Offices Where Fake Stocks Were Sold

By United Press
New York.—Bucket shop brokers are fleeing Wall street by scores before storm of district attorney's investigation. Detectives searching financial district for men wanted in grand jury indictment have found only empty offices in many cases. Of nearly 50 indictments up to date only six arrests have been made. Defaulting brokers indicted for grand larceny, brokers whose bucket shops have been protested and brokers who employed brokers to sell their stolen stock certificates and have stolen away in the night. Nearly 100 detectives have been sent to Wall street to bring back brokers wanted for trial in connection with investigations. Bail in most cases has been set at $50,000. Those who have fled are also charged with grand larceny.

STATE G. O. P. TO PUT TWO SLATES INTO PRIMARIES

Conservatives and Progressives Lining Up for Sharp Election Battle

Two complete Republican political slates will be entered in the state primary election next September, according to information gathered here. One slate will have the backing of the "progressives" and probably the Nonpartisan league, while the other will be endorsed by the conservative wing which is represented by the Committee of Forty-Four. Definite slates will be announced late in May or early in June, it is understood.

Assemblyman Mark S. Catlin is being urged by Republican leaders all over the state to become a candidate for attorney general but thus far he has refused to commit himself. There is every probability that the Committee of Forty-Four will insist that he become a candidate. In that event the more conservative Republicans in the First Outagamie county district will be forced to seek a new candidate for member of assembly.

WIVES WILL TAKE UP FARMER FIGHT

Minnesota Woman Says Prices Must Be Stabilized or Women Will Protest

By United Press
Washington.—Flight of the farmer's wife and his children under stress of hard times in agriculture was pictured Friday before the senate agriculture committee by a farmer's wife. Mrs. N. P. Radick of Fulda, Minn., vice president of the United Society of Agriculture, told the committee that unless congress does something to stabilize farm prices farmers' wives will be heard from in the next election. "Farmers' families are being broken up because young men and young women will not stay," said Mrs. Radick. "They are no longer the patient plodders they once were, content with whatever came, but are demanding a fair return for the work they put into making the farm a success."

Mrs. Radick urged enactment of legislation like that proposed by Senator Ladd, North Dakota, to stabilize grain prices.

JAPS MAY DEAL WITH RUSS GOVERNMENT

By United Press
Tokio.—Japan is disposed to recognize soviet government of Washington under certain conditions. The United Press learned Friday from an authoritative source. Instructions to Japanese delegates at proposed Genoa conference are being prepared. Japan probably will present two leading requirements:

That soviet regime guarantee safety of foreign lives and property in Russia.

That soviet assume debts of old government.

If these requirements are met Japan will be disposed to recognize the Russian government, it is said.

PARTIES ARE ASSORTING
CAMPAIGN PROPAGANDA

Washington.—That Democrats are trying to make "hard times," is the big issue of the congressional campaign which is getting under way as the first year of the Harding administration closes Friday.

Republicans are putting forward the administration's achievements as the main issue, notably the Washington arms conference with its peace and heavy savings in naval expenditures. Other important issues which are developing rapidly and which probably will confront the voters at the polls are the soldier bonus, action of the senate in seating Newberry and the proposed ship subsidy.

City Council May Combine Districts

Cut Down Trees To Provide Food For Needy Birds

More partridges dead from starvation were found in the big Center square Thursday afternoon by men who were distributing grain and other food for the birds. They say hundreds of birds are near death because they are unable to scratch through the hard crust of snow and ice to get food.

Considerable relief was given birds by cutting down birch trees and knocking the ice off the branches so that the leaf buds are exposed. Birds flocked to the fallen trees in large numbers.

It was suggested that one good way to feed the birds would be to fell a few birch trees and knock the ice off the branches.

The Outagamie Fish and Game Protective association is keeping up its efforts to provide food for the starving birds.

FAKE "OFFICERS" SMASH STILL AND TAKE MOONSHINE

Dale Farmers Said to Be Really Peevish With "Dry Raiders"

Several instances have come to light during the last few months in which the eighteen amendment, the ban of bootleggers and moonshiners, has been the boon of cunning crooks. Reports are that another instance of this sort recently occurred at Dale.

According to the story, a number of farmers and others in the vicinity of Dale have been operating large stills for the manufacture of "moonshine" at a price. A few days ago, two well dressed men, one tall and the other short, visited the liquor makers, posing as police officers and officers and informed them that the time had come to cease operations. They seized considerable quantities of moonshine, destroyed the stills and dumped out the mash. They then told the lawbreakers that in due time warrants would be served upon them and that they were required to appear in court at Appleton charged with manufacturing intoxicating liquor.

Days have gone by and it is said the trembling moonshiners are still waiting for those dreaded warrants to be served. With their grave fears assuaged they are now beginning to feel that they were the victims of a practical joke and that their visitors were merely out to secure some cheap "booth." The farmers vow to do dire things to "Mutt and Jeff" if they should again visit the locality.

Church, Near Death, Hangs For Murder

By United Press
Chicago.—The coming life of unconscious Harvey Church will be snuffed out on the gallows at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. Efforts to arouse the youthful slayer from his stupor have failed and preparations have been made to carry him, to the noose, strapped in a chair. Church, unlike most condemned murderers, did not have choice of last meal.

Physicians injected liquid food into his body to keep him alive until trap is sprung.

This is the forty-third day of his hunger strike and he has been unconscious for two weeks, failing to respond to any stimulant.

Dr. Norman Copeland, jail physician, said Church is a mental suicide and is practically dead. Church will be shorn, shaved and dressed in clean clothes ready for the death brig.

Anderson of the Salvation Army, was at Church's bedside all day. Church's last rites probably will be prayer for the repose of his soul by Anderson.

Jailer Peter Lawrence will read the death warrant to Church, who will not hear it, and then the trap will be sprung.

Miss Isabel Church, his sister, broke down in the death cell and tried to awaken her brother from his state of coma.

"Don't you hear me brother, dear?" she cried.

Church lay unmoved as his sister kissed his shaggy beard and wept. All chances of saving Church were lost today.

Attorney General Says Board of Education Can Establish Junior Schools

DON'T NEED CONSOLIDATION

Junior Schools Can Be Established Under Law Which Authorized High School

While the common council of the city of Appleton has the power to consolidate the four school districts here, to change their boundaries or to create new districts, it cannot change the system of administering school affairs. This can be done only by a referendum vote of the qualified electors.

That was one of the most important sections of the opinion prepared by the office of Attorney General William J. Morgan regarding the school situation in Appleton. Certified copies of the opinion were received here late on Thursday and were being carefully studied by the school authorities.

The opinion makes it clear that junior high schools can be established here by the board of education without recourse to a referendum vote or without first gaining the consent of the common council. The attorney general's office has ruled that inasmuch as the city of Appleton is a free high school district and has authority to establish and maintain one or more high schools it also has the authority to establish and maintain junior high schools.

For the board of education to adopt a resolution proposing to establish one or more junior high schools and if this resolution meets with the approval of the state superintendent of education he shall issue a certificate of establishment of one or more junior high schools.

COUNCIL HAS POWER
The opinion went very carefully in the question of whether it would be necessary to secure a majority in all the four districts here in order to unite them and if it would be possible for a small majority in the negative in one district to defeat large majorities for the affirmative in the other three.

The attorney general ruled that the law does not authorize boards of education to consolidate two or more school districts into one district but common councils, however, are empowered to "alter school district boundaries, and to create, consolidate, or dissolve school districts."

A question arose if this section of the general law applied to Appleton operating under a special charter but the attorney general ruled that the supreme court has ruled that a statute granting power to "all cities," as in the section referred to above, was applicable to special charter cities.

CHARTER IS SILENT
The attorney general also found a section in the special charter for Appleton that "all laws of the state relative to public schools so far as the same laws shall be applicable and not inconsistent with provisions of this charter shall apply to the city of Appleton." The city charter is silent on the matter of consolidation of school districts and therefore the general law cannot be inconsistent with the charter because the latter does not touch the matter at all.

The opinion also stated that until a referendum is taken on the matter of school administration the old system will continue to prevail as to the common schools of the city although the city is and will continue to be a single free high school district.

The attorney general, however, suggested that if the people of Appleton see fit to hold a referendum to adopt the new system of school government they will eliminate many opportunities for future contention and uncertainty.

Here is the attorney general's opinion in full:

Innocent John Callahan, State Superintendent of Public Instruction:

Dear Sir—You have asked my opinion on various legal matters relative to the high school at Appleton.

It appears that the city of Appleton was organized under a special charter (ch. 441 Laws 1885) which created four school districts within the city and gave the board of education, consisting of the director and clerk

CITY SLEEPING ON JOB, DIRECTORS OF C. OF C. ARE TOLD

Industrial Exposition and Survey is Needed, Lucius B. Wilson Says

Some local pride was knocked into a cocked hat by Lucius B. Wilson, industrial director of Appleton Chamber of Commerce Thursday night when he said that the city of Appleton compared to other cities of its size in the United States has only made a half growth during the last ten years. He recommended an industrial survey and an industrial exposition as the first step toward administering the tonic needed to change this condition.

Mr. Wilson is connected with the National Industrial Engineering corporation of Chicago. For four years he conducted a campaign for "Greater Des Moines" at Des Moines, Ia. This was done so successfully that when it closed he was engaged by the city of Detroit to do similar work there. After he had remedied some of Detroit's ailments he was made vice president of the American City Bureau. While engaged in these various tasks he wrote a book on "Community Leadership."

NO MUSHROOM GROWTH
"Appletonians, so I have learned," Mr. Wilson said, "are prone to boast of the fact that their city has made no mushroom growth at any stage of its development. They point to the fact that their city has grown steadily through the years."

This, he said, was natural, for even a father might take pride in the subnormal growth of his boy until he found that other men's sons were growing twice as fast as his own. That is just the situation with Appleton, the speaker said.

Statistics carefully compiled on the basis of census figures show that cities the size of Appleton have increased in population 33.13 per cent during the last ten years. Appleton's increase has been only about 13 per cent or half the average.

PEOPLE MAKE CITY
Cities are not made by location or by natural advantages, he declared. It's people who make a city. The fact is when most cities were founded, their founders never took into consideration the matter of location or natural resources. Some cities today which have all the natural advantages that could be bestowed upon them, are still struggling along in a small way.

In outlining the factors which do make a city the speaker mentioned in order of importance, the following: Man, markets, transportation facilities, natural resources and raw material. He told of a small city which is famous because it is the location of a factory which makes writing tablets and yet the nearest paper mill is thousands of miles away. Liverpool, he pointed out, is the world's greatest fur market but this is certainly not due to location or natural advantages. North America, the great fur producing continent, sells its raw furs in the Liverpool market and then American buyers and manufacturers must go there. Why then, he asked, ship them back to this country? This, he said, was due to the fact that an English corporation, The Hudson Bay company, was the first big fur buying concern on American soil and it diverted the market to England. This bit of history, he said, again emphasized the fact that men and not natural conditions make a city or a market.

CONVERTING INDUSTRIES
He expressed his opinion that Appleton ought to have more "converting" industries here. Local factories, he said, turn out a great deal of raw material. Why not convert it into the finished product right here instead of shipping it a thousand miles?

To show the city its possibilities for expansion in industry and consequently in growth, he recommended that an industrial exposition and survey be held as soon as it can be arranged. The directors took the proposal under consideration. It is said if they decide to hold the exposition it will be staged during the summer or at a time when a large attendance can be drawn from this entire section of the state. This will increase the chances for a successful exposition and at the same time serve as a fine advertisement for Appleton.

E. E. WITTE TAKES JOB IN STATE LAW LIBRARY

Madison, Wis.—E. E. Witte, secretary, Wisconsin Industrial commission, on Thursday accepted the position of director of the legislative reference library at a salary of $4,750 annually. He succeeds to the place held for twenty years by Dr. Charles McCarthy, who created the library as an adjunct to the legislature.

RENEWING GOWN
Possibly you are one of the women who bought a one-piece serge dress which opened down the side? If it isn't worn out and you're looking for some way to bring it up to date, have it cleaned and then have some canton crepe of a harmonious contrasting tone and put a bias piece about eight inches wide from the neck to hem line at the side where the gown fastens. The cascade effect is being used on the newest frocks.

WOMEN MEN ADMIRE

Men admire a pretty face, a good figure, but more than all a buoyant disposition and the charm of happy content. There is no question but what a light-hearted woman is the joy of a man's life, but no woman can be happy and joyful when dragged down by the ailments that so often develop headaches, backache, nervousness and "the blues."

We are continually publishing in this paper letters from women who have been restored to health by J. J. de la R. Chikham's Vegetable Compound after doctors and other medicines have failed to help them. If you are ill why not give it a trial.

K. OF C. HEAR TALK ON FIRE PREVENTION

Louis McGillan Says More Than Half of Fires Can Be Prevented

Louis McGillan, head of the fire inspection bureau of the fire department, read an interesting paper on fire prevention at the regular meeting of Knights of Columbus in K. C. hall Thursday evening. The paper followed the business session.

Mr. McGillan declared that fully 50 per cent of fires are from preventable causes and that if householders and businessmen exercised only common sense caution the number of fires and the losses therefrom could be reduced by at least one-half.

Installation of heating apparatus, chimneys, flues, electric wiring, use of gasoline, storing of ashes and disposal of rubbish were among the subjects that he touched upon. He gave definite rules for installing furnaces, chimneys and flues and offered valuable suggestions for the use of gasoline. All electric wiring should be done by professionals who understand the electric code, he said.

Following the address Mr. McGillan demonstrated the lungmotor with which the fire department is equipped. Dr. C. E. Ryan supplemented the demonstration with a brief talk on his experiences with the lungmotor and praised the fire department for its quick response to calls for use of the instrument.

A smoker followed the address.

STORM IS HARD ON MILK COMPANIES

The Simon Cheese Co. at Appleton Junction and all other companies handling milk and cheese in this immediate vicinity have been greatly handicapped since the storm by lack of transportation facilities. Farmers have been inconvenienced less than dealers for they have been able to deliver milk to the factory with horses and are not dependent upon rail transportation. Shipments of cream and milk have been delayed in transit until they depreciated in value and in instances where shipping service has been rendered it has been necessary to use light cans because of no return shipments, and because of this fact a great many cans have been rendered worthless through rough usage.

TREE IS LIVING ORGANISM; MUST BE WELL TREATED

Oshkosh Man Gives Valuable Information Concerning Care of Trees

"A tree is a living organism. It perspires. It drinks by taking up large quantities of water through its roots. The leaves are its lungs and in a large measure its digestive organs. Groups of trees fight battles with other groups of trees for the possession of the soil. This battle comes about through the distribution of seeds and through to conflict of conditions in the soil which various kinds of plants must master in order to live."

"The roots battle each other underground for possession of the best and moistest soil. The tops struggle for the mastery of the light and the result is determined pretty largely by the competitive ability of one species as against another to do with less sunlight or to live on poorer land. Many kinds of trees are like some people, they prefer the bright lights. They like to get their heads above the crowd and wave their arms vigorously summer and winter."

These were a few of the interesting things O. T. Swan, secretary of the Northern Hemlock and Hardwood Manufacturers' association, told the Rotary club of Oshkosh at a recent meeting. His talk was in regard to the anatomy of trees and was made with special reference to the effect of the recent sleet storm on the trees. While he declared he is not an expert on tree anatomy, still he gave some valuable information on tree life.

ONLY PARTLY ALIVE

"A tree is not a living thing through and through. The bulk of it is as dead as a telephone pole. Its life is in a thin layer just underneath the bark. In doctoring trees it must be kept in mind that their principal circulatory system is just below the bark. When trees are severely pruned leaf growth is generally stimulated and more wood food in proportion to the wood surface is manufactured than before."

"The arteries of life run up and down just under the bark and while they can be cut a part way around the tree, it is fatal to have a wound which goes entirely around the tree or around a branch because the circulation up and down is thus proportionately shut off."

MUST USE CARE

"To make any pruning on a tree, first make the cut surfaces as clean and smooth as possible by a smooth cut so that they do not hold moisture or water readily. After they dry these surfaces should be painted with creosote oil or carbolineum which penetrates the wood and poisons the seeds of decay. Treatment of a tree wound depends largely upon its size and location. Some are eventually self-healing. Others must be protected artificially for many years. In cutting off a branch from the main trunk or from another branch it should be sawed off evenly as a protruding stub does not heal readily. In cutting off a limb, care should be taken to undercut the branch when it breaks. The drops it will not tear away the bark."

"Cavities in trees should be filled with asphalt or tar-like preparations. The main point is to keep the wounded surface completely covered and water tight."

"Do not girdle limbs when fitting in permanent braces. Limbs which have been badly bent and which do not regain their position by the middle of summer may be pulled into position and braced until they have regained their self supporting power. Be careful about pruning in such a way that the leaf surface next summer will be reduced. Prune next winter to develop new growth which has become apparent this season. Each summer during the next few years renew the protective coating over exposed surfaces."

FINISH POURING CONCRETE FOR NEW OFFICE BUILDING

Heating Plant to be Installed in Aid Association Structure Soon

Wednesday saw the last pouring of concrete on the Lutheran Aid association's new building. This was in the construction of the top slabs for the elevator penthouses.

The next step in the work will be the laying of the floors which are to be of terrazzo. Just before laying the terrazzo, the heating plant will be installed and connected. The radiators for the building are now on their way here and are expected to be received within the next day or two. Pipes connecting with the heating regulator to control temperatures throughout the entire building are to be a part of the heating system. After the floors have been laid the work of interior finishing will start.

Many applications for office space in the new building have been received. The second, third and fourth floors include 23 suites of office rooms and 21 single offices. The fifth floor, with the exception of one office suite, is to be occupied by the association's business offices. These will consist of four suites, one general accounting office, a director's room, an information room which will also house the telephone exchange for the building, one large burglar-proof vault, one large supply room and a women's rest room. Occupants of the private telephone exchange or may be connected directly with the telephone office.

No contracts have yet been made for the lease of space for two stores on the first floor. It is said that laying of the floors will require one month.

ADVERTISE CITY IN GAME CLUB BOOK

Chamber of Commerce and Advertising Club Extol Appleton's Virtues

Several thousand copies of the year-book of the Outagamie Fish and Game Protective association are nearly off the press and will be ready for distribution this week.

Among the many excellent features of the new book is its advertising particularly that which advertises the city of Appleton and the Fox River valley as the gateway to a vast hunting, fishing and camping region.

One full page advertisement was prepared by Hugh G. Corbett, secretary of Appleton Chamber of Commerce. It is an illustrated map of Wisconsin showing highway 15 from Chicago and Milwaukee to Appleton. By this the tourists from the big cities to the south will see that he has to come through Appleton in order to reach the best recreation fields the country affords.

From Appleton, routes are shown to all parts of the state, including lake land in the north and the dunes of the Wisconsin river in the south central portion of the state. Appleton advertising club also has a page advertisement extolling the varied, commercial and industrial advantages of Appleton.

ture will be Betty Compson, remembered from "The Miracle Man" in her latest comedy drama "The End of The World." It is a story of the sea and adventure. Milton Sills is prominent in the cast.

KEEP URIC ACID OUT OF JOINTS

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers To Eat Less Meat and Take Salts

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly; keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water.

Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also means of getting rid of the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism.

INCORPORATE FOR HUGE FUR RAISING FARM AT SHIOCTON

Novel Industry is Planned on Large Scale to Conserve Fur Industry

Carrying out the Wisconsin Conservation commission's aim to establish farms for propagating furbearing animals such as mink, muskrat, skunk and others before they become extinct, men who have operated a fur farm near Shiocton for the last three years have formed a $25,000 corporation known as Shiocton Fur Farm.

W. W. Speaker is president of the company, M. A. Mack, vice president, and G. A. Speaker, secretary-treasurer. The 50-acre farm of G. A. Speaker, together with about 700 fur bearing animals propagated there by G. A. and W. W. Speaker have been taken over and the company plans to increase this number to 10,000 within the next two years.

The Speaker brothers started fur farming with less than a dozen animals and the present 700 constitute the foundation of what the new company hopes to make a huge industry. The producers will specialize on muskrat, mink and skunk. It is said that skunk can be raised and sold at a profit for the fur animal because it costs practically nothing to feed them. Live skunk now sells at $10 to $30 each, mink from $15 to $45 and muskrat from $5 to $10.

General farming also will be conducted, the company planning to raise ten acres of cabbage and a few acres of potatoes for cash crops. Twelve milch cows also are owned at the farm.

Raising fur bearing animals for profit has been a failure with men, people who attempted it. Speaker brothers say, because the animals were locked up in a pen and expected to thrive in unnatural surroundings. The environment at the Shiocton farm is true to the life of the animals, and this principle has made the experiments a success. This is considered the only means of saving the industry, because feeding grounds have been removed from many localities and trappers are making rapid inroads on the supply of animals.

NAYLOR SAYS BIBLE GAINS POPULARITY

"The Bible is seven times as popular as the so-called 'best sellers,'" Dr. Wilson S. Naylor of Lawrence College said this to the weekly session of the community school of religion in Oshkosh Wednesday night. Out of every seven bibles printed, he said, six remain in this country and one is sent to missions in foreign lands.

There is evidence that the Bible is becoming more popular, he declared. There is a marked increase in the number of Bible students. A short time ago there were only 1,000 students in the colleges studying the Bible. Now there are 100,000. He said the doctrine of "infallibility of the Bible" does not apply to its historical data but merely to its spiritual power and its inspirational value.

Dime Novel Of Our Kid Days Is Coming Back To Greatest Popularity

Book Dealers Declare Demand Is Increasing for Emotional Love Tales of Other Days—Just as Good as Most Modern Works.

Honest now, are you an investigator who is longing for something new to investigate? If you are there's no use weeping like Alexander the Great because there are no more worlds to conquer. The fact is there are. Just by way of a suggestion you might try to find out if literature moves in cycles.

Proprietors of Appleton book stores are beginning to believe that it does. They are beginning to believe that the same human trait which manifests itself in a return of old fashions also manifests itself in the return of the old novels and old stories. If you ask proof of their deductions they show you their shelves where Nick Carter, Buffalo Bill and other old-time hair-raising stories repose in brand new editions, brightly illustrated and only recently off the press.

The only change in these stories is the price and the form. A decade ago, they were issued in pamphlet form selling at ten cents. Now they are issued with paper binding and sell for fifteen cents, which is a reduction of 10 cents from the wartime price.

YELLOWBACKS RETURN

With the return of the wild, adventurous stories for boys and men, there comes a return of the emotional love tales for women, the book sellers declare. Judging from the way these books are selling, if you asked some people who their favorite author is they would name one of the following: Mrs. Georgia Sheldon, Mrs. E. D. El N. Southworth, Bertha M. Clay, Charles Garvice, Mary J. Holmes and Burt L. Standish.

Continuing your questioning you might learn also that their favorite novel is one of the following: "Buffalo Bill's Gold Hunt", "Jesse James' Last Chance", "Jesse James' Gentleman", "Tishme", "St. Elmo", "English Orphans", "Tempest and Sunshine", "Violet", or dozens of others.

ODIOUS COMPARISON

Compared with the new 1921 novel.

modern moralists of Appleton admit that "the old novels aren't so bad." Some laying no claim to the title of moralist declare they would rather see the girl of today reading "Violet" than to have her gloating over what they term the rabid emotionalism of "The Sheikh."

Righteous dad today is also said to show very little antipathy to Nick Carter or Buffalo Bill. The fact is, according to the book dealers, dad himself is among the heaviest purchasers of the new editions.

The reason for the return of the old books, as the dealers give it, is that during wartime and the last two years, life itself was sufficient excitement. With the ardor of war cooling and the world moving at a little slower pace the individual is more prone to satisfy his appetite for excitement with the artificial diet afforded by the novel.

COURT GIVES DIVORCE TO MRS. LAURA LAMBIE

Laura Lambie was granted a divorce from Frank L. Lambie in circuit court in Oshkosh Tuesday on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment. They formerly lived in Kaukauna and were married there Nov. 13, 1907.

Custody of two minor children was given to Mrs. Lambie and the division of property will be made in accordance with findings which are to be drawn up later. The property includes a 40-acre farm in Wunneba-go-co. Two years ago Mrs. Lambie entered a previous petition for divorce but discontinued it.

the conservative candidate, John H. Dahl, Rice Lake, also is being mentioned by the progressives as a candidate.

There is a big possibility that J. N. Tittmore, Omro, former head of the Wisconsin State Union of the American Society of Equity and several times candidate for governor, may oppose Senator R. N. LaFollette in the primaries. There is a possibility that Tittmore would split up the farm vote sufficiently to carry the election, his supporters say.

This home-made lemon lotion is far superior to glycerin and rose water to smoothen the skin. Famous stage beauties use it to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, because it doesn't irritate.

NEED REFERENDUM TO PUT IN UNION SCHOOL SYSTEM

Council May Consolidate Districts But Can't Change Administration

of each district together with the majority of the city the power "to arrange and determine the boundaries of school districts and to form new districts subject to the approval of the common council." In 1904 your department issued a certificate of the establishment of a free high school in Appleton, which high school was established pursuant to sec. 490 Stats. 1898. The material portions of said sec. 490 are:

"Any city may establish and maintain not exceeding two high schools in the manner and with the privileges herein provided: . . . The question of establishing such schools may be submitted by the common council to the legally qualified voters at any election upon written resolution therefor proposed for adoption: . . . If the resolution be adopted, such city shall constitute a high school district."

This sec. 490, together with numerous other sections of the laws relating to establishment and government of free high schools and union free high schools, was repealed by ch. 563 Laws of 1917. The same chapter created 33 new sections covering the same general subject. The first of these sections (now sec. 40.43 Stats.) provided that:

"With the advice and consent of the state superintendent any city or school district or two or more school districts may establish one or more free high schools to be known as district free high schools in the manner and with the privileges herein provided."

Then after setting forth the manner of establishing such a high school in the case of a school district, the new law provided (sec. 40.45) that in the case of a CITY having a system of school organization according to the provisions of a general or a special charter, "a resolution proposing the establishment of a district free high school may be acted upon by the board of education"; further, that in all such cities "which now maintain one or more district free high schools, the board of education shall be the high school board, and the city treasurer shall be the ex-officio treasurer of the high school district, unless the city charter provided otherwise."

With this preliminary statement of the situation, I proceed to the questions asked in your letter.

1. Under what section of the statutes is the Appleton high school now in existence, in view of the fact that the old sec. 490 under which it was established is now repealed?

It is my opinion that the school now exists under ch. 563, Laws 1917 as a district free high school. Immediately upon the establishment of the school in 1904, the city of Appleton by the express provision of sec. 490 Stats. 1898 became a "high school district." The school established by that district was a district free high school. Ch. 563 Laws of 1917 abolishing the old code of laws for the establishment and regulation of district free high schools, at the same time provided a new code on the same subject. That the new law was intended to be applicable to existing district free high schools is apparent from the language of sec. 40.45 already quoted, referring to cities "which now maintain one or more district free high schools." It is my opinion that the change made in 1917, while in strictness it involved a repeal of the entire law under which the Appleton high school existed actually separate, merely to transfer that high school and others similarly situated over to the new system created by the new law. Therefore, all of the provisions of the statutes that are now applicable to "district free high schools" are applicable to the high school at Appleton.

2. Can one or more junior high schools be established at Appleton?

The question is answered in the affirmative. Sec. 40.63 Stats. provides that "any district maintaining a district free high school . . . may establish and maintain one or more junior high schools in the manner hereinafter provided." The city of Appleton became a high school district by virtue of sec. 490 Stats. 1898 and remains such a district by virtue of ch. 563 Laws 1917. It is, therefore, a "district maintaining a district free high school" within the meaning of sec. 40.63.

3. Must there be a general city election held before such junior high schools may be established?

4. If no such election is necessary, can junior high schools be established merely by resolution of the board of education approved by the state superintendent?

The third question is answered in the negative, and the fourth in the affirmative. Sec. 40.63 as already quoted, provides that the junior high school is to be established "in the manner hereinafter provided." The only subsequent provision as to the manner of establishing such high schools is in the following effect:

"The laws relating to district and union free high schools shall govern in the ESTABLISHMENT and maintenance of junior high schools insofar as such laws are applicable except as hereinafter provided."

As to a city having a system of school government pursuant to special charter, the method of establishing a DISTRICT FREE HIGH SCHOOL—which under the language just quoted becomes also the method of establishing a JUNIOR high school—is set forth in sec. 40.45:

"A resolution proposing the establishment of a district free high school may be acted upon by the board of education. If such resolution be adopted the secretary of the board shall notify the state superintendent of such action. If such action meets the approval of the state superintendent he shall issue a certificate of establishment of a district free high school (in this case a junior high school) in such city."

4. Will it be essential before such junior high schools may be established to have the four independent common school districts now existing united?

It will not be necessary. The city of Appleton is itself a free high school district. As such district it may act alone on the matter of establishing junior high schools.

5. In order to unite the four districts must there be a majority vote in the affirmative in each separate district, so that a small majority in the negative in one district would defeat the project even though the other three districts were overwhelmingly in favor of it? Or can the board of education unite these districts under sec. 40.67?

Sec. 40.67 merely authorizes the board of education in a city of the third class to "establish and define from time to time the boundaries of all common and high school districts." Practically the same power is already vested in the Appleton board of education by the city charter: "to arrange and determine the boundaries of school districts and to form new districts subject to the approval of the common council." Neither of these statutes authorize the consolidation of the four districts into one. The city is made by its charter to consist of four school districts and the mere power to change the boundaries of those districts and to establish new ones does not in my opinion authorize the board of education to dissolve or consolidate the existing districts. There is another section of the statutes, however, which I consider applicable to this situation, Sec. 40.01 (1) provides that:

"Town boards of supervisors, village boards of trustees and city councils are hereby given power, acting jointly or separately as the particular case under consideration may demand, to alter school district boundaries, and to create, CONSOLIDATE, or DIS-SOLVE school districts."

If this statute applies to a city under a special charter such as Appleton, it exactly fits the case and provides the method for consolidating the districts into one. In my opinion it does apply to Appleton. Its language indicates no intention of restricting its application of cities under general charter. It was enacted in 1917 (ch. 497 Laws 1917), long after the Appleton city charter was enacted. Our supreme court in SUPERIOR v. INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION, 160 Wis. 541, held that a statute granting power to "all cities" was applicable to special charter cities even though it was placed in the chapter of the statutes containing the general city charter, and this in spite of the fact that sec. 925-2 provides that the provisions of that chapter shall apply only to those cities which adopt the general charter or some part thereof. Sec. 925-2 the court said "must be regarded as restrained so as not to modify the general power which was granted later and unmistakably was made to apply to all cities." This proposition was reaffirmed in the very recent case of STATE EX REL. GILLEN v. BRAXAN, 172 Wis. 59. In the latter case the special charter provided that:

"No general law of this state, contravening the provisions of this act, shall be considered as repealing, amending, or modifying the same, except such purpose be expressly set forth in such law." Under these authorities I am satisfied that sec. 40.01 (1) is applicable to all cities including Appleton. Furthermore, sec. 10 of ch. X of the Appleton charter (ch. 441 Laws 1888) provides "all the laws of this state relative to public schools so far as the same shall be applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions of this charter, shall apply to the city of Appleton." The city charter is silent on the manner of dissolving and consolidating school districts. The general law, sec. 40.01 (1), providing a way in which that may be done by city councils, is not inconsistent with the city charter because the latter does not touch the subject at all. Therefore, by the express provision of the charter it would seem that the general law is applicable to Appleton and authorizes the city council to consolidate and dissolve the school districts.

6. Is the city school system of Appleton affected by the fact that on January 1st 1922 pursuant to ch. 242

Laws 1921, Appleton was changed from a special charter city to a general charter city?

The new general charter law, ch. 242 Laws 1921, provides a plan of city school government, but makes the adoption of such plan entirely optional. It provides (sec. 40.64) that: "Any city other than of the first class not operating its schools under the plan provided by this section . . . may adopt such plan, but only by referendum in each school district the whole or part of which is embraced in such city. . . . Unless a majority of the electors voting in each school district vote for adoption, THE SYSTEM SHALL BE UN-CHANGED, otherwise the result of the referendum shall be to create one district of all the old districts. . . ."

Therefore, until a referendum vote is taken in Appleton, the old school district system will continue to prevail as to the common schools of the city although, as pointed out above, the entire city is and will continue to be a single free high school district. I might add that if the people of Appleton see fit to hold such a referendum and adopt the general charter plan of school government, they will eliminate many opportunities for future contention and uncertainty as to their school organization.

Ingenious Maid Solves Problem For Employer

A Third ward housewife has a maid who for ingenuity is in a class by herself. Her mistress was anxious to entertain the members of her club and was bemoaning the fact that her telephone was out of order which made it impossible for her to call them or order refreshments. "Perhaps I can fix it," said the maid and disappeared. A few minutes later she was observed in her employer's yard with the end of a wire in her hand wading through the snow. She soon had possession of the other end of the wire and after connecting them went into the house to see if she could get "central." The operator responded promptly, the party was held, and the telephone still is in working order.

RUN DOWN AND SICKLY PEOPLE NOW REJOICING

Relief Afforded at Last Through the Untiring Efforts of Renowned Authority

According to W. A. Garren, noted authority on health, fully forty per cent of the people today are afflicted with what is commonly called a "run down" condition. The main symptoms or "warnings" of the complaint he says are lack of vitality and energy, nervousness, irritability, exhaustion, stomach trouble, indigestion, constipation, impure blood, weak back, headaches etc.

These ailments are caused by improper nourishment which is the direct result of an abused stomach and clogged up intestines, liver and kidneys. Instead of getting all the health giving qualities in the food you eat your system is starving. That's why you are weak, thin, and sickly. When you feel yourself unable to do the things which require strength and endurance; if you are tired all the time, no energy, nervous and despondent, you should use Garren's Tonic the modern medicine which is now so successfully overcoming these complaints.

Garren's Tonic which is creating so much interest from coast to coast is made from those natural health giving herbs which enable your stomach to digest the food you eat, and vitalize your blood and nerves with the stamina which makes people strong. 5 HOURS TO DRIVE FROM OSHKOSH TO APPLETON

It took the Poor Cuss of the Milwaukee Journal tour department five hours to come from Oshkosh to Appleton on route 15 Thursday afternoon in a Durant car, the first automobile to make the trip since the storm. Other cars have made the trip by going out onto the lake. Three members of the Hoosier Print Sales company of Milwaukee accompanied the Poor Cuss on the trip. They left Appleton Friday morning to go to Green Bay.

The Journal motorist said that the trip through the snow was the hardest driving he had done. To roads between Milwaukee and Fond du Lac are better than in summer, he says. The entire way was like a rut track until they reached the storm area. The party left Milwaukee at 1 o'clock Friday noon.

3 WOMEN DIE IN $300,000 FIRE IN PRISON CITY

Huge Plant of Shaler Vulcanizing Company Totally Destroyed

Waupun.—Bodies of Mrs. Emma Michaels, Mrs. Howard Carney and Miss Bessie Cuckoe, victims of fire which destroyed the Shaler Vulcanizing Co. plant here last night, were recovered on Friday. The bodies were burned to a crisp but recognized. Latest estimates place the loss at from $200,000 to $300,000.

Waupun.—Fire, which claimed the lives of three young women, and which completely destroyed the $300,000 plant of the C. A. Shaler Vulcanizing company, of this city late Thursday afternoon, broke out following an explosion of undetermined origin in the punch press room of the factory at 4:15 o'clock.

The five hundred employees of the company were in the building, a two story frame and stucco structure covering a block and a half exclusive of the warehouse in connection, at the time of the explosion, and in less than five minutes the whole factory was a mass of flames through which the employees rushed to safety—with the exception of Mrs. Howard Carney, 27, Mrs. Emma Michaels, 27, and Miss Bessie Cuckoe, 20, who were trapped on the second floor of the building by the mad rush of the flames, and who are believed to have been cremated in the burning factory. The fire spread rapidly and completely destroyed the building and extended to the plant of the Althaus Wheeler company, across the street. The foundry of the latter company is also a total loss. Flames bursting out from the burning buildings destroyed a warehouse in connection with the plant of the Shaler Mfg. company.

CALL IN OTHER CITIES
Waupun's fire fighting apparatus was completely helpless and hurry calls were sent to Oshkosh, Fond du Lac, and Beaver Dam. These cities answered immediately and about a

Ralph Parlette, who will give his version of "The University of Hard Knocks," at Lawrence Memorial chapel Friday evening has a message for every one according to those who have heard him speak. He has come through the university himself the wiser for much experience which was brought to him because he was required to work his way through the world.

That Mr. Parlette will be well worth hearing is evidenced from his quaint philosophy and straight forward thinking. He is not a professor who talks down to his audience for he remembers keenly his days as janitor of his hometown school, he is not an editor who gives out learned material for he was also a printer's devil and although he would make a good pulpit speaker he is not a preacher and he has lived in all sorts of conditions and with all sorts of people.

hundred regular firemen, together with hundreds of volunteer firemen, fought to prevent a spread of the raging flames.

Residences for three blocks around were caught in the terrible grip of the conflagration, many of them being badly burned. Thousands of men will be thrown out of work as a result of the fire. The plant was nationally known for its manufacture of automobile tire vulcanizing equipment and for automobile headlight lenses.

NEW MAIL TRAIN FILLS LONG FELT WANT IN APPLETON

Mail for New Night Train is Heavier Than For Any of Day Trains

After the first two days' trial there is no question about the value to Appleton of the additional mail service to southern and eastern points by the mail car placed on train 126 Mar. 1, according to local postal officials.

Wednesday night three pouches of first class mail was made up for this train in Appleton postoffice according to John E. Letter, superintendent of mails. This is even a greater quantity of letters than has heretofore been made up for any train in the day time and is taken as an indication that the new service will be extremely popular.

It was at first intended to run train 126 from Green Bay to Chicago but at the last moment this plan was changed so that this train continues to run only from Fond du Lac to Chicago. Appleton nevertheless gets through mail enroute on train 124 which passes through here at 9:30 in the evening on its way from Powers, Mich., to Fond du Lac. At Fond du Lac the mail car on 234 is attached to train 126 and continues its journey into Chicago, thus giving through service.

READY FOR DELIVERY
Clerks on this car make up mail for Chicago direct. That is they sort it according to Chicago's city delivery routes and substations so that when the mail reaches the Chicago office it is all ready for the city carriers to take out. At the same time they make up pouches for Milwaukee and for the trains south, east and west of Chicago. This gives Appleton a speedy mail service to every point in the entire country. All local offices between here and Chicago are also served by this train.

"This is the kind of service we have wanted for years," Mr. Letter said, "and everyone seems to be taking advantage of it. A large quantity of parcel post and other matter besides letters goes out on this train."

SCOUTS READY TO ASSIST VETERANS

More than 20 Appleton Boy Scouts will be on duty to act as guides and messengers during the state conference of commanders and adjutants of American legion posts to be held in this city Saturday and Sunday.

A corps of scouts will be at the Sherman house, conference headquarters, at 7 o'clock Saturday morning. They will guide visiting commanders and adjutants to the homes in Appleton where they will stay during the conference and be ready to carry messages and run errands at any time Saturday and Sunday.

A corps of scouts will wait at Armory G Saturday night until after the banquet and be ready to guide conference delegates who arrive in Appleton late Saturday afternoon to the homes where they are to be guests Saturday night and Sunday.

Bessemer, Mich.—Joseph Barton, pumpman at the Anville-Palms Mine, is growing vegetables and flowers by the aid of electricity 1000 feet below the earth's surface. Barton has a trough three feet long and two and a half feet wide, filled with earth from the surface and mixed with fertilizer. In it he raises beans, onions, lettuce and other vegetables as well as flowers. The plants grow just as well as on the surface, Barton said, due to the fact that the temperature is fairly moderate and the excellent quality of water to draw for them. Barton also has a fish pond with pickerel, perch and suckers thriving in it.

The WRONG FACE

By ISABEL OSTRANDER

BEGIN HERE TODAY

FAY TUDOR, wealthy orphan, suffers a nervous breakdown in France after the news of the death in battle of her brother WILBUR and returns to the Tudor estate on Sandy Cay. She is met by her aunt, an attractive widow, MISS CLARA TUDOR, and the latter's daughter, LAUREL. The summer colony is frightened by the report of a "wild man" whom Fay believes she has seen peering in the windows of the Tudor estate. Sheriff Hulise and his friend, SERGEANT JOHN BARRY, a New York detective, investigate. Fay is attracted by the personality of CAPTAIN WARREN, her brother's friend, who was with Wilbur when he fell. On the night of Mrs. Tudor's dance, KENNETH CLAYTON, wealthy philanthropist, who is thought to be in love with Mrs. Tudor, proposes to Fay. She rejects him after the dance. Laurel confesses to Fay that she is in love with HARRY CADMUS, an old love of Fay's but for whom she no longer cares. Fay congratulates Laurel, wishes her happiness and the two girls prepare to retire. An approaching storm prompts Laurel to close the windows.

GOING WITH THE STORY
"Oh, we must have the air," Fay protested. "If you are cold in the night."
"Night!" Laurel exclaimed with a little laugh. "It's almost morning! Oh, Fay, dear, I'm so glad you don't care about about Harry and me! There have been times when I almost hated you! Will you forgive me for being so horrid to you in my thoughts?"
Fay laughed.
"Of course, dear. I wish you and Harry all the happiness in the world. Good night!"

It was nearly noon the next day when Martha opened the door softly and entered with the breakfast tray. Outside, the wind whirled through the trees and a hard, driving rain slanted in at the opened windows. With a shiver the maid placed the tray upon the table and went over to close the windows. As she passed the bed upon which Fay lay the girl stirred sleepily and turned over, but did not awaken, and from the other bed there came no sound or movement.

The younger girl was lying on her side with one arm thrown up over her head, which was almost buried in the pillows, and her dark hair fell over the side of the bed nearly to the floor.

Martha hesitated for a moment and then touched the bare arm lightly. The next instant she had recoiled, for the arm was icy cold and now, for the first time she noticed that a strange bluish shade had crept over the fair skin!

Laurel's lips had fallen slightly apart, her eyes were half unclosed and showed dull and glassy to the other's horrified gaze, while over the riquant features, fixed with that same hideous bluish pallor, it seemed as though a hand had been passed, robbing them of all expression.

"Miss Laurel!" The words came in a strangled whisper from Martha's lips. "Miss Laurel, what is the matter? Speak to me!"

Her voice died away in her throat and she laid her trembling hand for a moment on the girl's breast. Then with a half-stifled cry she turned and fled from the room and down the stairs.

CHAPTER V
An hour before noon, Sheriff Hulise and Sergeant John Barry described to the station house of the Tudors, approaching them at a speed which aroused all the former's professional enthusiasm. He stepped out into the road with an authoritatively up-raised hand and Frank came to a grinding stop.

"I am after Doctor Green, sheriff." "What's up?"
"Don't know myself, but, according to Martha, it's sudden death and looks uncommonly like murder."
"Murder?" The sheriff looked at his companion. "Guess we will both go right along with you, Frank."

The two officials climbed into the machine, and, as Frank started off again, Sheriff Hulise asked:
"Tell us about it. One of the guests of the party last night found dead in the grove?"

"Not it's Miss Tudor herself—Miss Laurel Tudor. When Martha took chocolate upstairs to the two young ladies just now she found Miss Fay all right, but she couldn't wake the other one, and then discovered that she was dead. She didn't wait to disturb Mrs. Tudor, but ran downstairs to cook, and they decided to have me go for Doctor Green."

"A few words sufficed to explain the situation to the country practitioner, and he joined them in the Tudor car. They found Martha, the cook, and Louise, awaiting them on the side porch."

In the meantime Fay, who had stirred at Martha's first entrance, found that sleep would not return to her. She sat up upon one elbow and called, "Laurel!" softly, but, receiving no reply, decided that she would permit her cousin to sleep undisturbed.

Surely Laurel was lying in a peculiarly uncomfortable position! Her head was hanging so far over, and could it be that she was cold? There was a peculiar bluish tinge to the flesh of her arm.

Scarcely knowing what prompted the quick, half-suffocating sensation of alarm which caught her by the throat, Fay threw herself out of bed and approached that still figure.

Her work in the devastated regions of France had brought her into contact with death in so many violent, hideous forms that one glance sufficed to tell her the truth. With a wordless cry of horror she slipped unconscious to the floor.

"What is the matter, Martha?" the physician asked. "Frank tells me that Miss Laurel is dead."
"Yes, doctor! She is lying there just as though she were asleep, until you get a glimpse of her face! It's all blue-like and horrible!"
"Has Mrs. Tudor been awakened?" Does she know?"
"I didn't dare! Will you come up now, sir?"

The doctor nodded and followed the girl upstairs to that silent room with the motionless figure upon the bed and the senseless one beside it.
"Hello, what have we here? Miss Fay must have been told. Help me lift her, Martha. Is there a spare bedroom across the hall?"
"Yes, right next door to the one poor Mr. Wilbur used to occupy."

As the unconscious form was borne from the room the doctor bent over the body lying on the bed. He straightened, and there was a peculiar hard glint in the direct gaze which he bent upon the servant.

"Is it the usual thing for Miss Laurel and her cousin to sleep together? They always share the same room?"
"Yes. Since Miss Fay's return from France they have occupied this room together, just as they always did when they were little girls."

"Do they always sleep with the windows closed like this?"
"No, sir. When I closed them myself when I brought the chocolate in this morning, because the rain was beating in fearfully."

"You are sure of that, Martha? You are positive that the windows were wide open all night?"
"Positive." Martha gazed at him for a moment in astonishment, and they approached the nearest of the windows. "Here, the carpet and curtains are still soppy wet, doctor. What has happened to Miss Laurel?"

"She is dead, Martha, and has been for some hours. I think I will go now and have a look at Miss Fay."

Fay had regained consciousness and was seated upon the side of the bed, wrapped in a dressing gown. Her hands were clasped tightly together and she was staring straight before her as though scarcely conscious of the presence of Barry and the sheriff, who hovered in the doorway.

The latter turned to the physician. "Anything suspicious about it, doctor? Anything in my line of work?"
"Yes. That peculiar bluish tinge which has suffused the entire surface of the skin. We find that usually in cases of asphyxiation, an hypothesis manifestly impossible in this instance, since there was no illuminating or coal gas in the room, the windows were wide open, and the occupant, Miss Fay here, seems to have been quite unaffected."

Doctor Green drew a chair up to the bedside and possessed himself of one of Fay's cold, lifeless hands.
"My dear, what can you tell me of this? Did anything disturb you during the night?"
"Nothing. It was quite late, nearly morning when the dance broke up and the guests left. Being in mourning, you know, I did not appear, but the lights and music and general bustle kept me awake, and when Laurel came upstairs we had quite a long talk. She was in the very best of health and spirits, doctor; in fact, I remember that she said she had never been so happy before in all her life! Has Aunt Clara been told?"

"No, and it must be done immediately. Do you feel strong enough to go to her?"
Fay hesitated, but only for a moment. Then the old indomitable spirit came to her rescue.

"I will go, Doctor Green."
"The girl went slowly down the hall and opened her aunt's door."
"Why, Fay, how you startled me! Is anything the matter? Is Laurel ill?"

Fay took both her aunt's trembling hands in hers.
"Not ill, dear. You must be brave and let me tell you. Laurel died in her sleep."

"My God!" The slim hands were torn from Fay's grasp and seized her shoulders in a vitelike grip. "You cannot know what you are saying, Fay! There must be some hideous mistake. Not Laurel!"
"Yes, Aunt Clara, Doctor Green is here, and the sheriff. Will you see them?"

"The sheriff! Why, what does it all mean?" She retreated to the bed, sinking down upon it with her tearless eyes gazing into space. "Ask Doctor Green to come to me, Fay. And then I—I should like to be alone."

Fay closed the door softly and went down the hall to where the doctor waited with the young police official from the city.

TOOK ENTIRE YEAR FOR 15,000-MILE SEA TRIP

By United Press Leased Wire
Sydney—One of the record sailing trips of history was completed here a short time ago, when the yawl "Amaryllis," of 28 tons register, commanded by Lieut. G. H. P. Mulhauser, an Englishman, completed a 15,000 mile trip from Plymouth, England, which lasted nearly a year.

After clearing Plymouth, the yawl made for Spain, thence to Madeira, the Canaries, the Barbadoes, around Jamaica, to Colon, Galapagos, the Marquesas, Society Islands, Cook Islands, Friendly Islands, Fiji, Noumea and Sydney.

The skipper describes it as a fair weather trip until the run from Noumea to Sydney, when heavy gales were struck. The crew of the "Amaryllis" consisted of two young men, until Suva was reached, when F. Albercrombie, an American engineer, joined the yawl and helped steer her into Sydney harbor.

Here Are A Few Hints For Milady When She Picks Spring Bonnet

Many New Idiosyncrasies In Materials and Trimmings Feature Spring Styles for Hats—Birds are Latest Fad.

By Hedda Hoyt
New York—A clever woman uses the same tactics in the choosing of a bonnet as she does in the choosing of a husband.

She selects one that will wear well, set well, stand the strain of fofit or fair weather, one of which she will not tire easily, one that is kind to her from every angle and, above all, one that looks as if it belonged to her. She doesn't choose the first one that happens to please her eye without trying out its qualifications nor does she try out everything that is set before her. She chooses the one that she likes best by taking any old thing. As she always looks her best before her prospective life partner, so should she see that she is at her best before sitting down to the milliner's mirror.

Should Milady follow the above rules when selecting her Spring bonnet, though heavy lies the head that wears the crown, hers will balance with the ease of the down of an aged dandelion.

The spring hats of 1922 can be large, small broad, tall, turned-up, drooping, flimsy, feathery, flat or what not. So it is difficult to make any set rules for one to follow on them. Materials and trimmings, however, have many new idiosyncrasies which mark the hats of this Spring from those of previous seasons. For the tailored hats there are the culminated ostrich, lacquered quills with painted designs in batik, quills of ribbon and chenille. This quilt trimming is usually placed on the back of the medium shaped hats, which invariably turn up a bit at the back. When ostrich is used other than in quilt form it is long fluted and worn as a sweeping band about the crown of the large dressy hat.

Birds—shades of the Audubon Society—are the latest fad used in Paris as a trimming and will be very popular here in America. They are not, however, the real, stuffed bird, for our birds are to be made of pasted feathers and with paper bills. A real good bird is worth several paper bills if one is to believe the wholesaler. Parrots and parakeets are the birds most in demand, though a few drab-looking sparrows are shown. Chenille birds embroidered on straw, are also very effective.

The most popular flowers shown this season are blue bells, morning glories, hyacinths, hydrangeas, thistles and in fact anything with a blue or lavender tone in it. Corn colors range next in the line of popularity. Fond lilies, magnolias and nasturtiums are among the prettiest flowers in this tone. Lacquered flowers and leaves are favored for the cluster trimming.

Ribbons—when one mentions ribbons it is necessary to speak of the Ruban Tagatelle at once, for it is the most beautiful ribbon put on the market in years. It has a highly lustrous surface which looks very much like patent leather, but has a softness to it that yields to any draping. It comes in every conceivable shade and width. Whole turbans are draped of it and the narrow widths are used as a rosette trimming. One model of this material is made in the familiar turned-up style in navy blue and is trimmed with a wide white ribbon edged in colored grain adding a new touch to the sport hat.

In parts of the country where long winters do not permit the early wearing of straw hats, satin haircloth, quilted Canton crepe, and the candy cloth materials are used for the between season hat. Many hats and candy cloths can be trimmed to form the new back winged effect. The poke hat will undoubtedly be the most popular shape of the season, with its front brim slightly rolling off the face and its back very short. Large picture hats are said to be popular abroad in the advance spring models. After several years reign, the off-the-face type is on the wane and the picture hat should meet with a welcome here in America.

Timbo straw is the new material for sport and tailored hats. Horse hair braids form most of the more dressy models.

Perrinwinkle, that lovely shade fringing between lavender and blue will be worn with the thin summer frocks. Jade, used as a trimming, is well favored as is fuchsia in every tone.

FASHION TIPS
Spring promises to have a suit season rather than the wrap and gown idea which we have been used to.

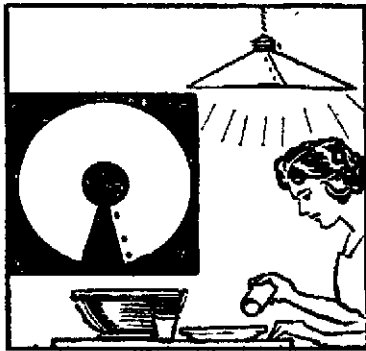

Poiret displays a three piece suit of white romaine with a black quilted skirt and lined with tangerine taffeta. Veils with small dots are preferred at the moment to the larger meshed ones with the chenille dots. The mesh is usually taffy or sand color with brown dots. Henna and putty are also good.

Neckwear is made up in bold, splashy colors of linen rather than in sheer batiste and lace. The tendency for sport effects is probably causing this change.

Many of the evening gowns worn at Palm Beach this season are of white Canton crepe beaded in yellow beads in an all over design.

Black more is to be one of the best selling materials for the one piece costume this coming season. It is at its best when trimmed with black monkey fur.

SPARE TIME JOBS FOR FATHER

The kitchen light is usually high up. And often the light is not as bright as it should be.

A simple way to add to the brightness is to make a white cardboard shade. If made large enough this will reflect a brighter glow all over the kitchen.

LEARN A WORD EVERY DAY

Today's word is DIRIGIBLE. It's pronounced —di-rij-i-bul with accent on the second syllable. It means—capable of being steered or led.

It comes from — Latin "dirigere," to steer.

It's used like this—"The Roma, recently destroyed, was America's greatest dirigible balloon."

MOCK CREAM

A very good substitute for whipped cream can be made with two eggs whites, one cup of powdered sugar and a large apple. Grate the apple into a bowl, add the sugar and egg whites and beat until stiff and white.

CONVENIENCE

A great top on the kitchen table is a metal convenience. It is easier to clean than wood and dough can be rolled out on it without the use of the customary wooden board.

FASHION TAKES ROLL OUT OF MILADY'S HOSIERY

Here you are girls! Put your money on the "Rollette," and you can't lose. That's what Dame Fashion tells us.

The "Rollette" is the newest thing in the summer time hosiery. It is the result of the "roll your own" habit that girls had last summer.

It does away with your having to worry about the possibility of a hand-rolled stocking rolling all the way down. Where the roll used to be there is now a suggestion of elastic and a bit of fluffy ruffle that reaches to just below the knee—and stays there.

And here is another little tip. Your fancy pencil, or fountain pen, with the side clip will fit nicely into the "Rollette" stocking.

Fresh Cocoanut

WITH fresh cocoanut again in market it behooves the house keeper to find use for it in her cooking. Cocoanut is quite high in food value, containing much fat, some mineral salts and a small percentage of protein.

A made dish with cocoanut is consequently a very nourishing food and the rest of the real should be planned with this in mind.

COCOANUT SALAD

One half fresh cocoanut, 2 sour apples, 1 cup celery, 2 small onions, 2 sweet green peppers, 1 tablespoon minced parsley, French dressing.

Grate cocoanut. Pare and chop apples. Chop celery. Mince onions. Remove seeds and white fiber from peppers and chop. Toss these ingredients with parsley until well mixed. Pour over 4 tablespoons French dressing. Put in a covered bowl and chill. Serve in a lettuce leaf.

COCOANUT DROP COOKIES

Two eggs (whites), 1 1/2 cups sugar, 1/4 cup grated cocoanut, 1 tablespoon cornstarch, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1/2 teaspoon salt.

Beat whites of eggs till stiff with 2 tablespoons water. Beat in sugar. Put in a double boiler over hot water. When lukewarm add cocoanut, cornstarch and vanilla. Drop from a teaspoon onto a buttered and floured baking sheet. Bake in a slow oven for twenty minutes.

APPLE AND COCOANUT PIE

One cup grated cocoanut, 2 cups grated apples, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 cup sugar, pie dough.

Line a deep pie dish with pastry. Pare and grate enough apples to make two cups. Sprinkle with lemon juice to prevent discoloration. Stir in sugar. Put half the cocoanut in the bottom of the lined pie dish. Add apple mixtures and bake ten minutes in a hot oven.

Reduce heat and finish baking. When almost done cover with remaining cocoanut and finish baking.

COCOANUT PUDDING

One and one-half cups milk, 1/2 cup cream, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 3 tablespoons cornstarch, 3 eggs (whites), 1/2 cup grated cocoanut.

Dissolve cornstarch in a little cold milk, add sugar to remaining milk. Scald milk and when at the boiling point, stir in cornstarch and cook to a stiff froth. Stir into milk mixture and cook three minutes. Add cocoanut. Chill and serve with boiled custard made with the yolks of the eggs.

COCOANUT PIE

One small cocoanut, 2 cups milk, 1/2 cup sugar, 3 eggs, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 6 tablespoons powdered sugar.

Grate cocoanut. Beat yolks of eggs with sugar. Stir in cocoanut and stir in milk. Pour into a pan lined with pastry and bake in a slow oven for forty-five or fifty minutes.

Beat whites of eggs till stiff and dry. Beat in sugar and spread over pie. Bake ten minutes in a moderate oven to brown the top.

Adventures of the Twins

Oliver Roberts Barton

Pim Pim's Surprise
After that thing went pretty well. Nancy and Nick bade Whizzy Toronado farewell and thanked him for his great kindness.

"Kip isn't the only one who has made up for his mischief, I think," said Nick gravely. "I think you have, too. I've heard that it's an ill wind that blows nobody good, so it must be true that it's a good wind that blows everybody good, and that's what you are doing now. Goodbye Mr. Whizzy."

"Goodbye, my dears," answered Whizzy. "I'm going to take my winter nap by my big fire now. The only trouble is that when I sleep all winter I'm so full of spirits in the spring that I'm like a skittish horse that's been stable for months. I just have to act up and carry on, and then I'm always ashamed of myself afterward. But I'll try to do better next year."

"Please Green Shoes, take up back to Mr. Pim Pim in Brownland," wished Nick when he had shaken Whizzy's big hand.

Instantly they were at Pim Pim's side and that gentleman was so surprised at their sudden and unexpected of appearance that his big hat fell off and he turned two somersaults.

"Oh, my, my!" he cried out in delight. "Isn't this wonderful! And you've got the key to the Enchanted Cupboard, too!"

"Well, well, well! They always say that the darkest hour is just before the dawn and I guess it must be true for I was feeling as blue as the last tub on Monday before you came. Christmas only a week away and not a thing done."

"But we can hurry and I'm sure that everything will come out all right. Nick, take your key and unlock that cupboard and get out the two magic shovels that are leaning against the wall. We'll start to dig the shiny stuff for tree toys at once."

They set to work with a will. (To Be Continued) (Copyright, 1921, NEA Service)

NON-INFLAMMABLE
Flannel can be made non-inflammable if it is dipped into water in which an ounce of sal-ammoniac alum has been dissolved. This must be done after washing and rinsing the garment.

ART POINTS WAY TO MAKE FORTUNE

Two Chicago Young Women Find "Timber Tots" A Veritable Gold Mine

By Roy Gibbons
Chicago—Art for art's sake alone, grew tedious for two young women here and so Miss Rowena Young and her co-partner, Ora Nelson, veered away from sheer idealism and are now on the road to wealth.

Wasted scraps—broken pieces of wood—in a furniture factory, where they were employed as designers, inspired an inventive faculty now earning them thousands of dollars.

It was following a hard day of toil that Rowena came home to their little studio apartment and said:

"Let's do something that can take us away from all this."

And thus were born the "Timber Tots"—newest fashions of the doll world, made from abandoned table legs and cast off bits of bric-a-brac.

With the increasing popularity of these toys has grown the fortunes of their two creators, who now employ almost 100 workers, salesmen, and distribute their product throughout the world.

"We had several thousand 'Timber Tots' on our hands before we started selling," Miss Young said.

"Then we went to the work of marketing our product with a punch."

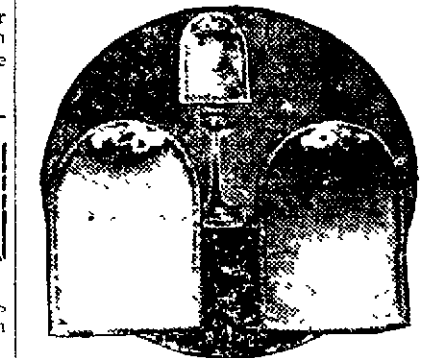

"Business has been booming. We find no such thing as depression. In the past 10 weeks we have opened more than 400 new accounts."

Both girls—neither is over 26—say that what kept them at their work was the idea of vindicating their own estimation of themselves.

"And then, too, we thought it was about time that children be given some sort of new doll," says Miss Young.

"Even wood has a soul when you touch it right. And there is use for everything that is left. The lumber scrap piles will put us on easy street within the next six months."

Which is Larger the Sun or a Cent?

ONE CENT

"Why—the sun of course" you will say. But remember—you can hold the cent so close to your eye that you lose sight of the sun. Some baking powders can be bought for a few pennies less than Calumet—but don't hold these cents too close to your eyes—you will not be able to see the quality—the purity—the dependability of

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

In other words, don't be deceived by a few pennies—the cheapest baking powder in price is often the most expensive.

When you buy Calumet you know that it will produce pure, sweet, and wholesome bakings. You know that you use less because it contains more than the ordinary leavening strength. Buy it—try it—be convinced.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 12 ounces. Some baking powders come in 16 ounce cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

WEDS 3 TIMES IN 18 MONTHS

For the third time in 18 months, Mrs. Sid Hatfield, of Matewan, W. Va., has married. Her first husband was C. C. Testerman, mayor of Matewan. He was killed in 1920 in a gun battle between townfolk and imported detectives. Her second husband was Sid Hatfield, former Matewan police chief, indicted in connection with a gun fight and shot and killed in a battle as he was mounting the courthouse steps on the way to stand trial. Now the 25-year-old widow has married S. H. Perry, sergeant in the state constabulary.

Girl Puts This Bartender With Others Of Idle

Nice. — "Smiling" Fred Martin, globe-trotting American bartender, who has moved a cocktail in every port and is better known to many American tourists than the Eiffel tower or St. Peter's, has quit the profession.

To speak accurately, Fred has lost his job. During the summer, of late years, Fred has presided over the creation of near absentmindedness at Deauville; during the winter, he has welcomed his friends from behind the "American bar" at the Municipal Casino here.

It was a bewitching young woman with a New York accent that cost Fred his place behind the Casino bar. Fred never could resist a New York accent, he says. She had lost heavily at baccarat. She knew she could win if she only had 5,000 francs more.

It is strictly forbidden for an employee of the Casino to loan money. But the accent reminded Fred of a girl he had known in Harlem. He counted out five thousand francs, and the woman departed hopefully.

Fred never knew if she won or lost. But the Casino management found out about the matter, and Fred received the "back."

"But never again for me," says Fred. "An American bartender is an exile anyhow, these days. I guess I'll take my wife and my motor car and make a tour of Europe. Why work, anyhow, when one isn't appreciated."

Household Hints

RETAINING COLOR

A teaspoon of vinegar added to the last rinsing water for the black stockings will aid in keeping them a good black.

CLEANS WHITE PAINT

If you would clean white paint take ordinary baking soda and spread it over the paint which has previously been gone over with a damp cloth. Let the soda remain on a few minutes and then wash off. Do not rub the paint hard.

MORE DIGESTIBLE

Before serving boiled mutton, remove the fat from the gravy. The mutton can then be eaten by those with the most delicate digestion.

DESTROY TASTE

After cutting onions with a knife run it through a raw potato before you wash it. This will destroy the onion taste.

WIFE COLLAPSES WHEN TOLD OF MATE'S DEATH

Chippewa Falls, Wis.—When Mrs. Herman A. Yerke received news of her husband's death under a Soo Line train on which he was a brakeman she collapsed and is now near death. Mrs. Yerke has just returned from St. Joseph's hospital, where she underwent a serious operation. Yerke fell from the engine, while reaching for a train order while passing Downing Junction and was found to death beneath the wheels. For the last year he has had but little work and as a result the family is now destitute. The Associated Charities have taken charge of the home, while railroad men here are raising a fund to assist the family.

Mrs. Snyder Found
the Magic Word

Housecleaning is no longer a bugaboo with Mrs. Snyder. She found that the one word—Rub-No-More—means "Magic" during housecleaning.

And she found this all out at her grocers. Upon his shelves she saw some R. N. M. White Naptha Soap alongside of a number of packages of Rub-No-More Washing Powder, Yellow Naptha Soap, Soap Flakes and Spotless Cleanser.

These reminded her of last fall when she cleaned house with these products. As if by magic—her work was easier, more economical and all cleaning finished in less than half the usual time. Moral: "Let the Rub-No-More Elephants do your housecleaning."

Franklin Invested in Bread

You've all heard the story of how Ben Franklin, as a boy, came to Philadelphia with only a few coppers in his pocket—and how he invested in two large "rolls"—really loaves—of bread. And how marching down the street in the early morning, one roll under his arm, and munching the other he passed by the house of, and saw for the first time, his future wife. It's a pretty story, well told in Ben's own "Autobiography." Read it to the kiddies some time.

Of course, VAN GORP'S BREAD was not known in those days. If it had been, you may be sure Franklin, shrewd as he was, would have chosen it for his investment. Do try it folks—it's different!

THE larger the surface of a piece of meat the more juice may be obtained. That is the reason meat for soup is often cut up in many small pieces. Meat for this purpose should be allowed to stand in cold water before cooking. Good meat will give a larger percentage of juice and will cook up into tender pieces more readily than some of the cheaper cuts. Tough meat and poor soup is the result of so-called economy in buying.

RADIO USED AS MAILMAN BY "SOO" LUMBER FIRMS

Choboygan, Mich.—Another use for the radio has been found by the Kresge Lumber Co. of Johnsonwood, Drummond Island. The radio is used by the company for dispatching and receiving of important mail. Ordinarily it takes several days for the mail of the company to go from Johnsonwood via the Soo to the mainland of Michigan. To obviate this the company uses the radio to Choboygan and W. W. Kathman, local radio operator, forwards the letters from and directs replies mailed to Choboygan and they are repeated by radio service between the two places. Four days' time is saved by this method, it is estimated.

Dempsey Praises Kerns

CHAMPION JACK DEMPSEY AND HIS MANAGER JACK KEARNS

Jack Kearns, who manages Jack Dempsey, is known as one of the most successful managers in the fight game.

In fist circles, the first thing to do to be a successful manager is to get a chance to handle a champion. The second thing is to get the champion real money for his bouts.

When it comes to getting money, Kearns is just about the last word. Dempsey's share of his fight with Carpenter amounted to only $300,000.

With Dempsey, whatever Kearns says is law. As a matter of fact, Dempsey gives his manager much of the credit for the success the champion has won.

At one stage of his career Dempsey was all set to quit the fight game. Kearns had a difficult time to convince him that he had a big future but finally won him over.

Likewise Dempsey gives Kearns all the credit for the great left-hand the champion has developed. At one time Dempsey was purely a right hand fighter. Kearns, however, kept after him to develop a left. He used every method possible, and finally got results. Dempsey's left hand is now as much feared as his right.

Charles Ebbetts, president of the Brooklyn National league club, hit the nail on the head when he said: "Club owners are to blame for the epidemic of holdouts. Big money talks from the owners has filled the air. I don't blame the players for trying to get as much as they can."

When John McGraw paid $5,000 for a minor leaguer, O'Connell, he said in reality he was only paying about $15,000 as the government would get the rest in the old income tax.

Naturally the players feel that if the owners are making such big profits, why not share it among them. If there is a desire to beat the income tax.

It is a point that should be well taken.

Why this money mad hysteria on the part of the ball players?

Harry Heilmann, received $7500 from the American League in 1921.

Last year Heilmann carried off the batting honors in the American league.

For 1922, Heilmann wants $15,000. The Detroit club has offered him $10,000.

Edie Roush of Cincinnati wants $15,000 and a three-year contract.

Carl Mays wants the New York club to tear up his contract for this year and give him a much fatter one.

Babe Ruth wants anywhere from $40,000 to $60,000 and $500 extra for every home-run he makes.

Why this money mad hysteria on the part of the ball players?

Charles Ebbetts, president of the Brooklyn National league club, hit the nail on the head when he said: "Club owners are to blame for the epidemic of holdouts. Big money talks from the owners has filled the air. I don't blame the players for trying to get as much as they can."

APPLETON HIGH IN FINAL HOME BATTLE FRIDAY

Orange and Blue Five Plays Manitowoc Quintet in Alexander Gymnasium

Coach A. K. Vincent will send his Appleton high school basketball team against the Manitowoc high school cagers Friday night in Alexander gymnasium in the final home game of the season for the orange and blue. The Appleton players have been driven at full speed in practice every afternoon this week and are in shape for a hard battle.

Coach Vincent expects the Manitowoc athletes to give his men a real competition but believes they will win by a comfortable margin. Appleton defeated the Manitowoc quintet in Manitowoc at the start of the season but both teams have improved greatly since that game.

The Appleton mentor plans a shift in his lineup for Friday night's battle. He will use Briese and Kanouse at forwards, Ashman and Zussman at guards. Coach Vincent is sending Zussman at guard in order to get more speed in his defense and is playing Kanouse at forward because of the showing he made in the game against Oshkosh last week. Kanouse has a deadly eye for the hoop and is past-master at following his shots.

The sectional tournament will be held in the Oshkosh Normal gymnasium on March 16, 17 and 18. The Orange and Blue cagers have earned the right to play for the sectional title and will be entered in the series. Coach Vincent will start by preparing his athletes for the big tourney next Monday. Practice will be held every afternoon.

The Appleton-Manitowoc contest is scheduled to get underway at 8:15. A preliminary game between two Boy Scout teams will start at 7:30.

SPORT VIEWS AND NEWS

Eddie McGorty, Oshkosh, intends to stage a real comeback and fight his way to the place where he can mingle with the top-notchers again. Eddie will make his first start in his comeback campaign next Thursday night when he scraps Bud Gorman in a ten round bout in Oshkosh.

McGorty is training hard for the battle. He is working long hours every day in the gymnasium and taking hikes on the road. He realizes he must defeat Gorman decisively if he is to be considered in the running and is leaving nothing undone to get himself into best possible condition.

The Oshkosh mauler seems to be sincere in his efforts to stage a comeback and reports from the sawdust city are that he is taking excellent care of himself.

Since the Post-Crescent published interviews from Jack Dempsey and Stanislaus Zhyezko in which each said he would win if they met in the ring and debating whether a boxer or a wrestler would win in a finish bout, each using his own means of offense and defense. Al Haft, Ohio State wrestling coach, formerly world's middleweight champion under the name of Young Gotch, tried it out recently. He sent five of the university's best amateur boxers against five of the school's best amateur wrestlers. Keep in mind that amateur wrestlers do not know how to use the toe-hold, full Nelson and hammerlock. The wrestlers dropped to their hands and knees at the word and crawled for the boxers. The boxers found it hard to hit a forceful blow when they had to lean over to hit, and the only part of the wrestler exposed was his back. As the boxers would hit, the wrestlers would grab their legs and bring them to the mat. Then it was all over. The wrestler won in each case and in less than five minutes each time.

The Beloit college basketball team has hung up a grand record this season. By defeating Carroll 31 to 8 at Waukesha last Friday night the Midwesterners secured their undisputed claim to the state collegiate title. Beloit has registered two victories each over Ripon, Lawrence and Carroll. The Gold five by virtue of its victories over Carleton college of Minnesota, Coe and Cornell of Iowa, and Lombard of Illinois, with no defeats, wins the championship of the midwestwest conference, which includes the strongest collegiate institutions of the four states.

Jim Barnes, pitcher of the New York Giants, has reconsidered his determination not to sign a contract for the 1922 season and will join the Giants on their training trip. Barnes and Phil Douglas, each of whom won two world's series games for the Giants, refused to sign the contracts offered them, and were placed on the market by Manager McGraw. When he discovered the offer of sale was no bluff, Barnes reconsidered and signed his contract. Nothing has been heard from Douglas but he will probably get in line.

Salaries have been cut and slashed this year in organized baseball. Outside of a few of the stars, players whose contracts expired last fall have been forced to accept salary cuts. The cuts have been felt more in the minor leagues than in the majors and the performers in the bush this season will receive about a third less money than they were paid in 1921.

Brighton, Eng.—Women are up in arms against the local council. They demand appointment of four police women. In 1918 all policemen resigned and since then the chief constable has refused to appoint others.

TOURNAMENTS TO BE STAGED SOON

Entry Blanks to be Sent Out for Basketball and Volleyball Series

Plans are now being made for basketball and volleyball sectional tournaments to be held here this spring under the direction of the Appleton Y. M. C. A. physical department. R. H. Starkey, physical director of the Y. M. C. A. will mail out entry blanks to team captains in this section within a few days and a date for the tournaments will be announced next week.

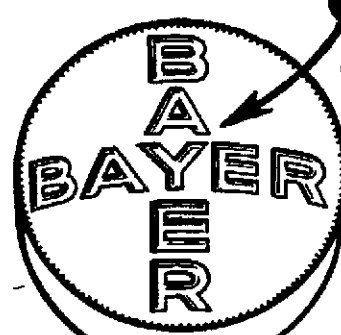

Sectional tournaments will be held in Green Bay, Oshkosh, Kewaunee, Sturgeon Bay, Waupaca, Oconto and Marinette at the same time as tournaments are held in this city. The winners in the sectional tournaments will meet in district tournaments in Appleton.

Sectional and district basketball and volleyball tournaments will be held in parts of Wisconsin and the winners of the district tourneys will meet in state tournaments to be staged in Madison in April.

The tournaments, which will be open to amateur teams, will be conducted under the direction of the Y. M. C. A. State Physical Directors society.

Up until 1920 the runner would have been called out on such a play if the fielder finally retained possession of the ball before it touched the ground, just as a batter is out of a fly ball, no matter how much it is juggled if finally held.

However, a change has been made relative to base runners. In such case the moment the ball is juggled it makes void the touch. If the runner reaches the bag before he can again be touched he is safe. In the play your cite the runner was safe.

AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE

WHY WE MUST TELL YOU THE WHOLE TRUTH ABOUT OUR USED CARS

If a house is built to last 50 years and is 5 years old, you can hardly buy it at 10% under the market price of similar new houses.

But an automobile that is built for 50,000 miles, and that has gone but 5,000 miles, can be bought for a great deal under 10% of the price of a new car.

The used cars which we offer were received by us from our customers in this community. We accepted them as cash in part payment for new cars, and so have in effect, purchased them with our own money.

We insist on knowing their real condition before we invest in them.

When we receive these cars we go over them thoroughly in our shops and still more fully determine their exact condition. Many of the cars we offer are completely overhauled, and worn parts replaced with new wherever necessary.

JUNCTION QUIET AFTER BUSINESS BOOM IN STORM

Grocers and Lunchroom Men Did Big Business With Railroad Men

Conditions at Appleton Junction, which was the scene of a great deal of activity after the storm last week are again normal. The snow and ice have been removed from the main lines and side tracks and is piled high outside of the rails. All kinds of freight is commencing to move, but it may be several days before loaded cars are released from the ice on sidetracks along both divisions of the Northwestern road.

Telephone wires are being repaired rapidly, but until the service is completely restored, Train Dispatcher John Hoffman of Fond du Lac, who arrived in Appleton Junction this morning after the storm and put in 48 hours of continuous service, will remain on the job.

DEMAND FOR GROCERIES

The grocery stores and lunch counters were completely swamped with business for several days after the storm. More than 100 men from the surrounding territory and 200 sent here from Chicago had to be fed. Most of the Chicago men had their board and lodging provided in cars but the company that had the contract for feeding them bought in such large quantities that the grocers had trouble in filling the orders. Potatoes were ordered in 50 bushel lots and all other groceries in proportion.

Fred Lutz, owner of the Junction grocery, said he never sold so much business in his life. The Chicago men used to come in at times his store was filled with workmen calling for it. At meal time his store was converted into a lunch room as a large number of the outside men preferred a bottle of milk, buns and sweet cakes to the meals served in the cars.

Joseph P. Shinkel, proprietor of Junction hotel and Leo Penn, manager of the lunch counter connected with the depot, did a land office business at meal time and during all hours of the night. The shovellers worked all night in clearing out the ice between the rails and were aided by the headlight of a locomotive that moved up as the progressed. The weather was cold and hot coffee and buns were in demand.

H. S. BANKERS HEAR TALK BY KINSMAN

Directors of School Institution Are Guests of Faculty Members at Dinner

Directors of Appleton high school bank were guests of Lee C. Rasey, principal, and Miss May Webster, faculty adviser, at a dinner in the Sherman house Thursday evening. The event was in recognition of the work done by the bank staff in building up and improving the business of this unique financial institution.

Mr. D. O. Kinsman gave the address of the evening, telling the young people facts about the bank from the banker's viewpoint and explaining what the bank would require of them in service if he as a banker was employing them. He related some of his own experiences as a banker.

Reed Havens, president of the school bank, spoke on "Dividends." He said the biggest profit to the bank done by the bank staff in building up and improving the business of this unique financial institution.

Unique programs were found at each plate, prepared by students with the help of the mechanical drawing department. The folders contained two kodak pictures, one of the high school or "bank" entrance, and the other of the directors. The names of the directors, the program numbers and parodies on the songs, "Smiles" and "Pack up Your Troubles" were printed on the inside pages.

Directors of the bank are Reed Havens, president; Richard Nelson, vice president; LaVahn Maesch, secretary; Harry Leith, cashier; George Kettenhofen, bookkeeper; Leona Williams, assistant cashier; Elmer Scheueller, assistant bookkeeper; Ione Kreiss, Carl Engler and Frank Hoppe, tellers.

Recent earnings of the bank have been used to improve the banking facilities. Each depositor now is provided with a bank passbook and a new and better system of bookkeeping has been installed.

ELKHORN SLAYER DECIDES TO PUT UP COURT FIGHT

Youth Who Admitted Slaying Friend Changes Plea to Not Guilty

Elkhorn, Wis.—Suddenly changing his stand after a talk with Attorney Bechdolt, sent to his aid from Portland, Ind., Fred McBride, confessed slayer of Edward Thielen, his closest friend, entered a plea of not guilty late Thursday afternoon before Judge Oscar M. Fritz of Milwaukee. Trial was set for April 4, at 10 a. m.

Attorney Bechdolt, who had been sent from Portland by Fred's brother, Jesse, told the court that McBride was without funds, and that the members of his family were unable to pay the expense of an attorney, hence, he would be forced to withdraw from the court case. Upon this showing, the court appointed Bechdolt, attorney of the local firm of Luce and Wilson, to act for the defendant.

It is understood McBride will offer an insanity plea. Jesse McBride is said to have turned over his life savings to help his brother fight conviction.

CHANGED PLEA IS SURPRISE

The change in plea came as a complete surprise to the prosecution. But a few moments before the consultation between McBride and Attorney Bechdolt, the defendant had talked with District Attorney Johnson.

Johnson stated that in this interview McBride reaffirmed his confession and asserted that he would refuse to plead not guilty on the grounds of insanity. According to the district attorney McBride said that he was not insane at the time it is alleged that he committed the murder, but knew just what he was doing, and that under these circumstances he wanted the case completed with as little expense as possible to the county.

When the case was called in Judge Fritz's court Thursday afternoon an adjournment was taken in order that the defendant might consult with the Indiana attorney who only reached here at 2 p. m. A postponement for consultation was granted and when court reconvened the surprise in the form of not guilty plea was sprung.

New Spring MODES

Emphasize the Important COVER COATS

COVER COATS stand in the front line of Spring fashions and add their extreme practicality to the other convincing arguments of the sensibleness of Spring costumes this year. Not only are they sensible, but these coats are very smart in design. They fit trimly, with well formed shoulders and sport lines. In every one just the right amount of material has been used. Spring doesn't demand flaring lines, so these cover coats hang quite straight.

The very lack of trimming makes them all the more charming. Nothing could be quite so trig as the leather-covered buttons and buckles that fasten the coats. Silk spear points and occasional pleats are the only other accents. You will notice that the prices are very moderate, and at the same time the materials are excellent.

Smart But Inexpensive Coats

All the style features of the most expensive models are used in these clever coats at the lowest prices. Among the fabrics are very good chinchillas, heavy double faced materials, single and double faced blanket cloths in shades of tan; tweeds and velours.

Some seem especially designed for the long hikes of Spring, others picture the first drives in the open car. These are distinctly coats of the season—garments to be worn for their smart appearance and the actual service you expect.

The colors are all shades of tan and brown with a few exceptions. The coats are lined with good materials and carefully finished in every way. A full range of sizes and styles for each size will establish the popularity of the cover coats at $19.50, $22.50, $27. and $35.

Camel's Hair Hats to Match Coats

Here is another expression of the tremendous popularity of these coats. Hats and tams of genuine Camel's Hair fabrics have been especially designed to wear with the coats. One hat has a narrow brim and rosettes of dark brown against the light tan of the material. Another hat is soft with a roll brim and two small pom poms that fall at the side. Still a third model is a tam, with a delightful trimming of flowers of Camel's hair at the side. These distinctive models in headgear are only $5.95.

"Shaggy" Coats

These coats are the finest grade of Camel's hair and actually are "shaggy." The quality comes in plain shades or very effective plaid combinations -- in subdued tones. Every part of each coat is fine in material and finish. The linings are lovely and the buttons are unusual and delightful. A "Shaggy" Camel's hair coat has all the air of a famous European watering place—and can be bought and worn in Appleton with exactly the same effect.

"Shaggy" camel's hair coats are priced at $70. and $75. They are shown in all sizes.
